Once

upon a time, there were Disney Princesses as beautiful as flowers, and as graceful as butterflies.

Some lived in castles and palaces; some lived in cottages and kingdoms under the sea. They danced and sang, dreamed and wished. Because they were kind, generous and loving, and never stopped believing—one day—when the magic was just right—their dreams came true. They are the Disney Princesses. Are you just like a Disney Princess, too?
